

Technical Recruiter / Account Manager

The Technical Recruiter / Account Manager is responsible for high-level recruiting of Engineers, Designers, and Computer Aided Designers as well as engaging and acquiring clients who specialize in Architectural, Engineering and Construction (AEC). He/She will conduct ongoing research of the AEC market insights/trends to remain current in technical knowledge and provide support to the Sales and Technical Resource effort specifically supporting existing business and developing new businesses. In addition, the Technical Recruiter / Account Manager is responsible for maintaining the office GPM and will be an active participant in local, state, and federal community activities to maintain business contacts. All interested parties please provide resume to hire@darnelltechnical.com.